The Golden Light

IN GOD I SEEK REFUGE FROM SATAN, THE CURSED ONE

IN THE NAME OF GOD,
THE MERCIFUL,
THE COMPASSIONATE ONE

Everyday a question to purify your mind

Will you ever get enough of thinking about God?

#1

Could you ever be good enough for God? Are there any limits to doing something properly for Him? Is not the sky the limit?

#2

Does satisfying God not feel better than drugs?

#3

If God really decided to visit us, could we ever purify our earth properly for Him? Does it not take a Disaster to purify our planet?

#4

Would someone who believes in Allah's Promise want to live forever?

#5

Do you not become faithless if you fail to worship your Maker for a whole day without a legitimate excuse? Are not impurity and intoxication the only conditions preventing you from remembering Him?

#6

Does "no coercion in religion" forbid teaching the holy and unchanged quranic Truth when we witness someone contradicting it, or teaching the correct use of language, insisting that only the Mightiest of all can be a God? So Who could be described as greater than Allah in words? Who could imagine Someone stronger than Him? Whose imagination could reach Him Who only says "Be" to make literally everything He wants exist —yet would He even need to say it? Thus, do they not invent equals and associates beside Him because they cannot, not in their wildest dreams? And still, do they not want a share of His Power? Does their trinity serve something else, or do their fake hadiths and sunnah?

#7

Does Israel not deny today's only universal Religion, a Religion with a Law and unchanged Guidance tailored for all? Is its own Religion universal though? Is it not tribal? Then in which book is the christian Law written? Did Jesus not teach the tribal Law of the Jews? Was he not sent to his people? And do Christians, who eat whatever crawls around, not reject their Law? Yet would Christianity not have its own Law if it were actually founded by God and revealed to a Prophet like Islam and Judaism?

#8

If you want God in your life, can language barriers and racism keep you from reciting Him, His genuine Verses, which are in Arabic? And is not the speed of a translator's reading the most yielding speed to read the holy, unchanged Quran?

#9

Is man the only being who celebrates his birthday? Yet should not your death be your birthday?

#10

Should you listen to your heart, your gut, your inner voice? Is the subconscious not satan's battleground and is the holy, unchanged Quran not God's Voice on earth?

#11

What is sweeter: satan's temptations or Allah's good Tidings?

#12

Do mediocre places deserve to be called "Paradise?" And would you ever yearn for promiscuity in Paradise?

#13

Is a non-virgin the same as a virgin?

#14

When a Muslima wears fitting dress and accessories to match her veil, does it seem like she is pressured to wear her veil?

#15

Can we use any word when we speak to God? Is the holy, unchanged Quran not the most appropriate choice of words to address the Almighty, coming from Him Himself?

#16

Is food consumed without pronouncing God's blessed Name on it not poison? Will you not regret every single bite and sip in Hell? What does Sura Al Anam, The Cattle, 6:121 warn us of?

#17

Do the things we are accustomed to not come from God as well?

#18

Could heat ever be an excuse for exhibitionism? What is wrong with timeless Arab fashion? Should especially Jews not dress like Semites, like Arabs instead of Caucasians, like they used to? Is the wardrobe of catholics — of Polish polytheists— really the best the Haredim can find to honor their Lord?

#19

Who are we to accept or reject God's Messengers and Prophets, those able to show His Signs? Are Hinduism and buddha, which Jews and Christians value more than Islam and Muhammad, able to show us God's Signs? Where is the Proof for Jesus' Prophecy if Muhammad was not a Prophet as they claim? Why should he be treated differently from Muhammad? Is Muhammad not the only Prophet confirming him? How do the believers of inconsistent books judge? Would Christians have any argument to make a Muslim believe in the Gospel if God Himself had not verified it to Muhammad? Or where does the New Testament predict scientific discoveries from the twentieth century —where does the Bible? Would anyone have known that the landmasses are relentlessly drifting without Allah's Revelation, revealed over a thousand years ago in the holy, unchanged Quran, An-Naml, The Ant, 27:88? Is anything less trustable concerning His Matter for His Creation? How else can we know that Jesus is not an invention like the dajjal of the sunnites, shiites and sufis?

#20

Who could silence activism for God in His own World?

#21

Is symbolism not a new old way of telling lies?

#22

How will atheists, who explain this life with coincidence, explain Hell?

#23

Do further writings besides God's Books exist in Eden? What would you need text for in Paradise?

#24

Are religions not challenges? Did mankind not fail in upholding Noah's Covenant, in guarding God's Revelations to Abraham, Moses and Jesus? And is the Holy Quran not the only unchanged Word of God today, guarded by the Lord Himself? And do sunnites, shiites and sufis not fail in it as well when they mingle it with Muhammad's contradicting, fake hadiths —seeking to change its Law?

#25

Is maybe satan the source of the dharmic religions Hinduism and Buddhism?

#26

Has the holy, unchanged Quran, for over a thousand years, not corrected all religions? Would someone religious, in spite of his own scripture teaching that God alone is the Maker of everything, believe that He would need to rest or the help of those whom He created? Is it really foolishness which makes Jews, sunnites, shiites, sufis, Christians and Hindus, as well as Buddhists, choose the inconsistent? Do they not know that the God of the reasonable Book is "severe in Penalty?"

Is the holy, unchanged Quran not more than a Book? Is not everything we can see and touch and we cannot see and touch made of the same sacred Words the final Book is made of, Words composed by our almighty God? Is it not the only ticket for most of us?

Are we Creatures and the holy, unchanged Quran maybe the only Works unveiling God's Effort? Does He not merely say "Be" for anything else to exist?

What is an animal's first reaction when it meets God: Fear or love?

#30

While people choose to leave this life, would someone ever choose to leave Paradise? And would someone ever be able to commit suicide in Hell?

#31

Is it much to memorize a Verse from the holy, unchanged Quran and to spare your time for your Lord five times a day, reciting and prostrating yourself, in exchange for Admission into Paradise? If you can afford it, is it much to give alms? Does God demand much? What would be your difference from a faithless if loving others was enough?

#32

Did Jesus' short time on earth not teach us how overrated this life is?

#33

Who could you trust more than God? What in this world could be more sincere to you than His holy, unchanged Quran, which was authored by Him Himself? What in this world could be holier? Or where in the Holy Book does Muhammad speak in the first person, as Moses and Jesus do in their books?

#34

Does your soul come from your mother? Or your father?

#35

Does any scripture sanctify life or fetuses? Glory to the exalted One, and is burning the holy, unchanged Quran a crime against its believers or against its divine Author? Then how islamic could be a government that denies God's Rights when blasphemy is committed, yet recognizes the rights of unborn, non-existent persons? And regardless of whether the Lord of the Heavens and the Earth is in no need of rights, would it not be a sign of recognition to admit His Rights?

#36

Glory to the exalted One, are Christians too racist for the God Who reveals to Arabs? And the Jews He chose? How devoted could someone be who is not even interested in learning the unchanged Word of his Maker? Yet should His chosen Ones not be more devoted than anyone else?

#37

Does prostrating yourself before Allah mean anything else than submitting to Eloah alias God? When will the Jews and the Christians submit? Do they not love and fear Him? Or is the Holocaust forgotten, forgotten like the wealth He granted the Christians?

#38

Where would the Jews be today if they had not denied Allah? Do they not deny Eloah when they deny His Most Beautiful Names along with the holy, unchanged Quran? Is He not the God, the King and the Highest, the Truth, the Judge and the Trustee, the appreciative and the loving One — regardless of whether they like the sunnites, shiites and sufis or not?

#39

Why would God not give everyone a chance to live a fulfilling life like the Jews He has chosen? Does the holy, unchanged Quran serve something else?

#40

Is it right to title a canon about a Servant of God like a Canon about God? Is it not scam? Should the values of the New Testament not conform with the sacred Values of the Old Testament, which go along with the holy, unchanged Quran?

#41

Who would choose to follow their loved ones into Hell?

#42

Do you believe that you can sin in Heaven? Would you ever want to sin where you could find whatever you desire? Is nirvana worth dying for? Are virgins not better?

#43

Does waste exist in Paradise?

#44

Who is cleaner: a homosexual man, someone eating conserved meat or someone eating freshly slaughtered pork? Is a heterosexual vegan not the cleanest of all, lacking all the toxins stored in his lean body fat?

#45

How do atheists explain geometry? How do they explain the Beauty of the crescent moon? Is there anything they do not explain with coincidence?

#46

Would a handful of Verses from the holy, unchanged Quran not create a safer society than those countless manmade laws we are surrounded with? Is this not the difference between man and God? Does our Lord not provide true Liberty: for individuals, for couples and for families?

#47

Is denial of God not followed by the worst Punishment there could be? Is it therefore not the worst crime you could commit?

#48

Could anyone other than God impose true Justice? Is Justice not a matter of weighing? And who is wiser than Allah?

#49

Does anything God hates matter? Do you deserve good if you accept someone with his faults?

#50

What moves us more than God's Acts?

#51

What is the holy, unchanged Quran for Christians if they call the scripture about Jesus "New" Testament? Do they not expect from the followers of the Old Testament to accept their novelty? And do they believe the followers of God's final Book would forgo this demand? Yet is the New Testament not composed by ordinary men, whereas the Holy Quran was authored by God Himself and dictated to a Prophet? So which Scripture has more right to be called "New" Testament?

#52

Could God's Greatness be sufficiently described with words? Is our heart not more precise in describing it, resulting in our acts? Does this not unveil the difference between Christians and Muslims, who prostrate before Him, starve and die for Him?

#53

Be it genies, be it animals, be it us, are we not all sponges of our Lord? Yet are the Angels His sponges?

#54

Do we yearn for different things than animals yearn?

#55

Would we have the same age as our parents, children, grandparents and grandchildren in the eternal Gardens of Eden? And in the eternal Flames of Hell?

#56

Where in the Bible does our Lord, Who refuses to be called Father in the final Scripture, demand from us to recite David's militant Psalms for His Worship? Does He not demand the Recitation of Him Himself, His universal Verses according to Sura Al Muzzammil, The Man Wrapped in Garments, 73:20? And is praying the way God teaches not more precious than health, family and friends? Could your loved ones save you from Hell if you choose not to worship Him appropriately, if you worship others beside Him, if you do not cleanse yourself beforehand, if you merely beg Him or recite lies to Him?

#57

Is remembering God and Jesus or God and Muhammad the same as remembering God?

#58

Are we not forbidden to distract ourselves from God when we pay attention to Him? Is this not how Salah works, praying the same revealed Arabic Verses we memorized over and over again by repeating the same submissive Movements Allah's holy Book teaches? Is this not how we serve Him, or why we are forbidden to recite unfocused under influence? And is it not a challenge, regardless of whether you speak Arabic or not? Should you not give your best? Should you not wash your heads and limbs beforehand and should you not purify your recitation from prayers composed by men, regardless of how glorifying they are? Is this not why the holy, unchanged "Quran" is titled "Recitation" in Arabic? And should it not be flawless? Are you not reciting your Lord? Is it not a Ritual?

#59

How can a Muslim be faithless in the eyes of a Jew? Should he not distinguish him from sunnite, shiite and sufic sectarians? Does a Muslim deny the Torah? Or where does the holy, unchanged Quran deny it? Does it not complete its "remnant" with God's true Greatness, Warnings, Commands and Promises? Are not you the faithless if you deny any of these?

#60

Does God not reveal that the Holy Spirit, Mary and Jesus are the enemies of those who worship them in Sura Al Ahqaf, The Long Winding Sandhills, 46:6?

#61

Would someone unconditionally believing in God say "In the Name of the Father, the son and the Holy Spirit" instead of trusting in God?

#62

Is worshiping idols, a crucifix, another so-called "judeo-christian value?" Is the Niceno-Constantinopolitan creed not explicit in its phrasing? And is rejecting idols not a question of black and white to tolerate any of them? Glory to the exalted One, do these not insult God according to Isaiah 65:7 and Ezekiel 8:17?

#63

Is it sincere to accept God in word and reject His almighty Being? Is it fair to remember Him in bad days and Jesus or Muhammad in good? What assures Christians that they do not deny the Almighty when they deny Allah the Most Exalted? And are sunnites, shiites and sufis aware of whom they worship when they praise, beg and moan to Muhammad and Hussein?

#64

Who might be more beloved to God: Christians, who celebrate His Messenger more than Him; Muslims and Jews, who celebrate Him more than His Messengers; Jews and Christians, who only approve their own scriptures and Messengers; or Muslims, who approve only His Messages, together with His Messengers, each of them?

#65

How would you pronounce "Qumran" if you left out the letter "M?" Could God's genuine Word ever be repealed? Could the most guarded thing in the world, the last copy of the Holy Quran, ever be overwritten, forged and erased like the earliest version of the Torah —not found in Qumran? How can there be a void of a millennium between Jehovah revealing His Commandments to Moses and its oldest available manuscript —and was it even Jesus who wrote down his Gospel? Then did it not take ages for the dharmic canons to be written? Yet were the Verses of the Holy Quran not written down immediately upon revelation, and were they not revealed because there are no better Bible manuscripts to come? Does the name "Qumran" stand for something else?

#66

Is Muhammad's life narrated much in the holy, unchanged Quran, which mentions his name merely five times? Are Jesus' and Moses' lives not narrated more in it? Do Jews and Christians have any reason to reject God's straight Path?

#67

Is it appropriate to forbid the portraying of Muhammad? Does the Second Commandment not apply to God? Should a Prophet ever be treated like Him? And is it surprising that sunnis, shiites and sufis prostrate before Muhammad today, in spite of this sunnah? Yet Whom does a Muslim worship?

#68

If God destroyed the world for Noah, accepted Abraham as a friend, spoke to Moses personally and created Jesus exceptionally like Adam, does it seem like Muhammad was His favorite Prophet? Yet does the holy, unchanged Quran not teach to treat all Prophets the same? Does preference not lead to idolatry?

#69

Does a sunnite, shiite or sufi need to hold Muhammad's hand to believe in Allah? Is this Submission? Is this a Muslim?

#70

Comforting as they are, are drugs not another Trial testing our obedience to God, Who forbade us to intoxicate ourselves in the holy, unchanged Quran?

#71

Is not fun satan's key into our lives? Is not humor his key into our souls?

#72

Could entertainment touch us like a dream? Could fiction thrill us more than God, the Provider of our dreams? Which feels more real?

#73

What could be more moving than God's genuine Tone in the holy, unchanged Quran?

#74

Is the holy, unchanged Quran, God's very own Word, negotiable? Is God's Decision something you could hinder? What do Christians believe they would achieve with their Islamophobia? Do they not see in Islam that more can be done for God? Glory to the exalted One, how can they love their —manmade— religion?

#75

Does "It is easier for a camel through the eye of a needle to go, than for a rich man to enter into the Reign of God" mean we must accept poverty? Where does the holy, unchanged Quran deny Paradise to the rich? Is Islam not the universal Religion? Is it not the Law capable of bringing out the best in each of us? Yet where is the Law of Christianity? Did it not distance itself from Judaism and its Torah without even offering an alternative? Did Jesus not preach the Law of the Torah, though?

#76

Can we blame Jesus for the blasphemous Christians and the lies in the New Testament? Did Jesus write the New Testament? Which Prophet wrote the New Testament?

#77

Would not more people read scripture and inform themselves adequately about their religions if there were fewer imams and priests feeding them collectively and systematically with blatant lies? Yet can we blame the clerics for the lack of interest in scripture?

#78

Would someone approving of God's Greatness ascribe the Messenger to Him whenever he revives his covenant in his prayer? Are we not taught to recite exclusively Allah, His genuine Verses from the holy, unchanged Quran, which, unlike the prayers from the fake hadiths of Muhammad, maintain His unbreakable Authority over His, not Muhammad's, Nation? Is it arbitrary that "Quran" means "Recitation" in Arabic, regarding the desecrated worship of the sunnites, shiites and sufis? Glory to the exalted One, would a Muslim dare to background his Lord? Would he treat Muhammad like another alleged son of Allah?

Is a muslim jurist allowed to judge, accuse and defend according to non-quranic law, according to sunnite, shiite or secular law?

#80

Is it not illusory to expect something as corrupt as sunnism, shiism or sufism to end usury? Is leasing really different from usury? Does it not come with costs as well?

#81

What could be the purpose of an ending life, of serving mortals, of struggling for a future you will never see? Do you not need to be amazed by life to believe in more than what can be seen, to reject miseducation and to recognize the ever-knowing Creator as the Author of everything? Yet is atheism able to amaze? Is it not made up to deny amazement?

#82

Is "maybe" the favorite word of atheists?

#83

Glory to the exalted One, how can it satisfy atheists to reject God? How does it feel to fear death, believing you will lose everything you love and you live for?

#84

Is the holy, unchanged Quran not straighter than karma, differentiating between believers and the faithless, the grateful and the thankless?

#85

How can Jews claim this life is all that matters? How can the Torah be unable to explain what happens when we die? How can it be compared with the holy, unchanged Quran, which is composed and signed by God Himself, for example in Sura Yunus, Jonah, 10:37?

#86

Would the children of Israel have been able to guard God's blessed Message if Israel had not been cosmopolitan, if it had been cleansed of bad influence as Jehovah demanded in the Torah?

#87

Glory to the exalted One, in ignoring God's only authored Book on earth, could you be too unmotivated for Heaven?

#88

What does someone Islamophobic want from Jesus?

#89

Who told the Christians that God's Revelations were riddles leading to "three?" Do His clear Commandments seem like riddles? Do they not clearly lead to One? And did He not create Islam in order to "manifest" it over all religions according to Sura At-Tawbah, The Repentance, 9:33? Or how well could a Jew serve his Lord with a law overwritten by infidels?

#90

Does prostrating before God and someone else mean prostrating before God? What is the difference between the sunnites, shiites and sufis and the people of Sheba, who, according to the testimony of the hoopoe in Sura An-Naml, The Ant, 27:24, were "prostrating themselves before the sun aside from Allah" —other than prostrating before Muhammad's name written in the mosque's prayer niche instead of the sun?

#91

Glory to the exalted One, how can the cleanest of colors be treated without respect? Does the color of Light lose its Purity when the wedding is over? Are you not filthy yourself should you allow something in white to become defiled?

#92

Could dead things create life, or three gods create the harmony we are living in, or a resting God administer over quintillions of beings simultaneously? Is Allah not the only One Who makes Sense?

#93

Aside from revealing that Allah created every living thing from water, does Sura Al Anbiya, The Prophets, 21:30 not prophesy the key elements of the Big-Bang Theory, suggesting that He created space only for us so that we can exist? And does Adh-Dhariyat, The Scattering Ones, 51:47 not teach that He is literally "expanding heaven": the universe? Is He not the only One Who does not need space? Is man able to grasp God before Creation? And is someone who does not respect Evidence the same as someone who does? Are there not two sorts of people?

#94

Can you be too wise to laugh?

#95

Is Paradise not real fun, eternal fun?

#96

How badly do you really suffer if you still resist begging God sincerely in your worst moment: without "prostituting" yourself by associating the Prophet with Him? So whatever happens in Gaza, could it really be that bad? And did Allah not promise the upper hand to His Believers, that "one hundred" of them would overcome "a thousand," or at least "two hundred?" Do we need more Evidence to disprove the fake sunnah that sunnites, shiites and sufis believe in?

#97

How can a believer deny a Plague coming from his Lord when there are enough examples in the Bible? How can he pray against Diseases serving no one except Him? Is COVID-19 not a Feast for the devoted?

#98

Are plants really alive? Will they be resurrected like the Angels, the genies, the animals and us?

#99

Who is the more useful: man or plants?

#100

Of all the places in the world, is the cradle of life, the Mount Judi we know from the holy, unchanged Quran, the appropriate mountain to mine? Does the landing place of Noah's Ark really belong to Turkey?

#101

Why do vegans and vegetarians show no interest in Prophet Noah? What other man has done more for animals?

#102

Do veganism as well as vegetarianism not protect from defiling yourself with the meat of animals not slaughtered exclusively in our Lord's blessed Name, the forbidden meat of pig, bloody meat as well as meat conserved long enough to be considered carrion?

#103

Is it possible for uncircumcised boys and men to properly clean themselves? Can they ever be purified enough to read the holy, unchanged Quran and worship the way God teaches, reciting Him with His very own Verses, to prostrate before Him, to pilgrim His sacred House in Mecca, to sacrifice and make Offerings to Him? What about women married to uncircumcised men? Is she not impure, as if permanently menstruating? So who could have replaced the biblical baths and circumcision with symbolic baptism in the New Testament, if not satan? Then can you ever be forgiven without amending? Did Yohanan not pay with his head for his straying, in order to attain the promised Peace from his Lord? Why else would the holy, unchanged Quran be silent about this ritual? Is it silent about judaic Rituals? Does it not teach purification, fasting and offering Sacrifices?

#104

Was Jesus not circumcised? Are christian men scared of circumcision? Yet is circumcision not the only way to purify oneself sustainably as a man, while baptism is merely symbolic? Do the HIV Infection rates among the circumcised and the uncircumcised not speak for themselves? Would we ever receive useless guidance from our Lord?

#105

Do Muslims and Jews, who are circumcised and eat similar food, smell similar to dogs?

#106

Do Angels and genies eat food like ours? And do they sing like us?

#107

Is the Turkish cult of bread better than other obsessions with objects and beings? Are idols not forbidden? Could poverty ever be an excuse to treat something the same as, or even better than, the holy, unchanged Quran?

#108

Since the holy, unchanged Quran reveals only little about the life of Muhammad, does Allah not address his witnesses when He tells His Readers to follow him? Are they not as well commanded to speak low to him? Does God mention books about him that future Muslims ought to follow? Would He not have predicted and verified the alleged hadiths if these were genuine and needed in Islam? Glory to the exalted One, does the Almighty need to share His Authority? And did He not verify the Torah, the Gospel and the Psalms?

#109

How can we follow Muhammad when the holy, unchanged Quran reveals so little about him? Do we have other testimonies about his life, written closer to his time, from witnesses dating back to his days, authentic witnesses affirmed by God and named in the Holy Quran, as would be expected for such a highly influential Prophet?

#110

How can people follow a dead Prophet who can no longer speak? Glory to the exalted One, how can they neglect the living God?

#111

Did God burden the "Seal of Prophets" with more than the "plain proclamation" of the holy, unchanged Quran, according to Sura An-Nur, The Light, 24:54? Did Allah grant him His "plain Authorization" as He granted to Moses in Hud 11:96? Would He ever want us to follow the sayings of a dead man, whose unspoken words could misguide in the future? Yet can a dead man deny his impersonators? Did Allah not command to follow a living Prophet in the Holy Book? Did He enjoin upon us any book about His Messenger, any of his alleged hadiths, to clean ourselves for such literature as we do to read the Holy Quran? And would sunnites, shiites and sufis not cleanse themselves to read these fake sayings if they honestly believed what they pretend: that these were equal to Allah's Book?

#112

Is there anything Prophet Muhammad did not promise in the vast world of his fictitious hadiths? Is there anyone who is not a Saint in the christian worldview? Yet does Allah not deny a book in which you find "whatever you pick," in Sura Al Qalam, The Pen, 68:37-38? Does He not thereby as well deny the New Testament, which claims that the Messiah authorized Peter with "whatever" he "may bind" and "loose" on "earth" to be "bound" and "loosed" in "Heaven?" Who would not wish for infinite wishes if he were granted only three? And did God not choose Mary according to Sura Al-e Imran, The House of Amram, 3:42? Was not she her son's true successor?

#113

Glory to the exalted One, do sunnites, shiites and sufis, who follow the fake hadiths of Muhammad, believe that our Lord would not know how much to reveal to us? Do they consider the holy, unchanged Quran a poor Book? Do they suggest that Allah's Choice of Words would be not sufficient? Or do they believe that the God of all would reveal only to the educated elite? Do they not deny Allah being God?

#114

How many books do you need to read to learn how to prostrate before God? Does Sura Al Jathiyah, The Kneeling One, 45:6 not reject any other path beside His genuine, quranic Path? Does Sura Al Jinn, The Genies, 72:21 not deny any Reason beside His Reason?

#115

Who is worse: satan, who refused to carry out God's Command to prostrate himself before Adam, or the Jews and the Christians, who refuse to prostrate themselves before Allah? Is Allah not the almighty God of the holy, unchanged Quran? Is there anything in the final Scripture casting doubt on His Divinity? Is there even one crooked verse in His straight Path? Glory to the exalted One, does He become tired as claimed in the Torah, or step back for His alleged son as suggested in the New Testament?

#116

Would Jewish worshipers prostrate themselves before their Lord in the Third Temple if it were rebuilt? And how many of the Synagogue congregations prostrate themselves at home when they fail to learn it in their place of worship? Why should a Mosque make space for a Synagogue or a Temple or a Church?

#117

Does Jehovah really allow Offerings to be dedicated to others, to genies, as claimed in many translations? Yet does He not reject this in the same Torah?

#118

Does a yeshiva student study the Torah for the sake of his Lord or for the sake of the Torah? Would he not be curious and study the holy, unchanged Quran with it if he studied it for the sake of his Lord? Yet how well does he study the Torah if he wears white ribbons instead of blue ones attached to his shirt, or wears the tefillin on his head instead of between his eyes? And is the wardrobe of catholics —of Polish polytheists— really the best he can find to honor his Lord?

#119

Could democracy be better than Paradise?

#120

Would you ever regret serving Allah?

#121

Could you be almighty if you have needs? And would you have any reason to be evil if you were free of need?

#122

Is God's Mercy unconditional? How do Christians judge?

#123

Is not Hell unconditional?

#124

Is Islam in the USA only acceptable when bundled with gay rights?

#125

How should we differentiate the straight Path from the crooked path if we respect all religions?

#126

What could satisfy you more than serving God exclusively, knowing you are doing everything right? And do you really serve Him if you obey the commands of the priests who overwrote the Bible instead of His uncensored Commands in the Holy Quran?
